

SHORTWOOD TEACHERS' COLLEGE

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

COURSE: Introduction to Educational Research

For your third year teaching practice you have been placed in a particular school. As you engage in the process of facilitating your students and as you engage in observation and reflection consider the following:

- Which problem related to teaching/learning are you concerned about?
- How is the problem manifested? (provide specific examples)
- Who manifests this problem?
- Who are affected by this problem?
- How are they affected?
- How does the problem affect teaching and learning?
